AXEL MK3

The Axel range combines old world and industrial with its combination of reclaimed wood from decommissioned Chinese fishing junks and hand-treated metal detailing. After decades of exposure to the high seas and elements, the reclaimed boat wood from the hulls, decking, and beams of the Chinese boats reflects uniquely weathered coloration's and textures, making each piece unique.

The latest incarnation of our signature Axel collection has a smoother, more evenly finished tabletop, still with just as much character as our previous versions.
